HOMECOMING COURT

GOOD TIMES IN '79

This year's theme for Homecoming was "Good Times", which everyone seemed to have. Music, along with special effects, influenced an easy going mood for a spectacular evening. The music varied from disco to a touch of country and western. The climax of the evening, at midnight, was the crowning of the queen and her court.

On January 13th, the Woodrow Wilson Drill Team held their annual banquet. After eating, the Sweethearts watched silent movies of earlier performances. As memories rolled across their minds, the seniors seemed to finally realize that the season was over. Leslie Mihal was then declared the Sweetheart of the year.

FOURTH ANNUAL DINNER THEATRE

This year the Dinner Theatre was presented on November 1, 1979. The feature group was the ever-popular Variations. For their first major performance of the year, they were backed up by the Woodrow Wilson choir. Along with this great variety of talent, solos were sung by Gina Surratt and Ann Groben. A number of humorous skits also added to the enjoyment of the audience. Cabaret was directed and choreographed exceptionally well by Mrs. Bircher and Mrs. Hardman.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY PINNING

Food and drinks were enjoyed by all after the pinning.

Kay Vermeulen is still in shock.

Javier Mendez pins new member Sally Dolan.

Joanna Brancato is overjoyed at hearing her name.

The new members of the National Honor Society were pinned Friday, February 15. The students that were selected have a 3.0 or higher average and have no grade lower than a "C" on their permanent record. Teachers rated them on character, leadership, and service. A reception was held in a classroom immediately following the pinning.

THE WILDCAT REVIEW

For the first time Woodrow Wilson presented a talent show consisting not only of Seniors, but underclassmen as well. The host for the evening was the ever-humorous Mr. Cook. There was something for everyone: skits, songs, dances, and musicians. All in all the show was a smashing success and a great example of Wildcat talent. It proved to be a satisfying evening for all.

The Woodrow Wilson art department presented "Anything Goes" as the musical for this year. Try-outs for the cast were held in November. The scenery was rented from the Dallas Music Hall with the help of Mr. Surratt. The great Woodrow orchestra played backup music with lyrics written by Cole Porter. The Dallas Morning News covered a story on the W.W. musical, stating that it was more than an ordinary High School musical.

= WW SWEETHEART

In February, something special happened to a selected group of sophomores and juniors at Woodrow Wilson. That month is special because that is the time tryouts for Sweethearts happen. Girls that try out come early before school to workout, practice, and hope they are picked as a W. W. Sweetheart. After weeks of morning practice, they show their routine to the judges. On February 15, in the girl's gym, there could be heard tears and laughter over the results.

JUSTICE FOR SENIORS

The 1980 Seniors in Mrs. Jameson's Government Classes put on their own trials. There were Judges, Lawyers, murderers, witnesses, defendants, and of course victims. Some of the cases were made up, but some were taken from actual crimes. Mrs. May's Government classes were the jurors. They heard the evidence and then deliberated before they gave their decision.

PROMISING!

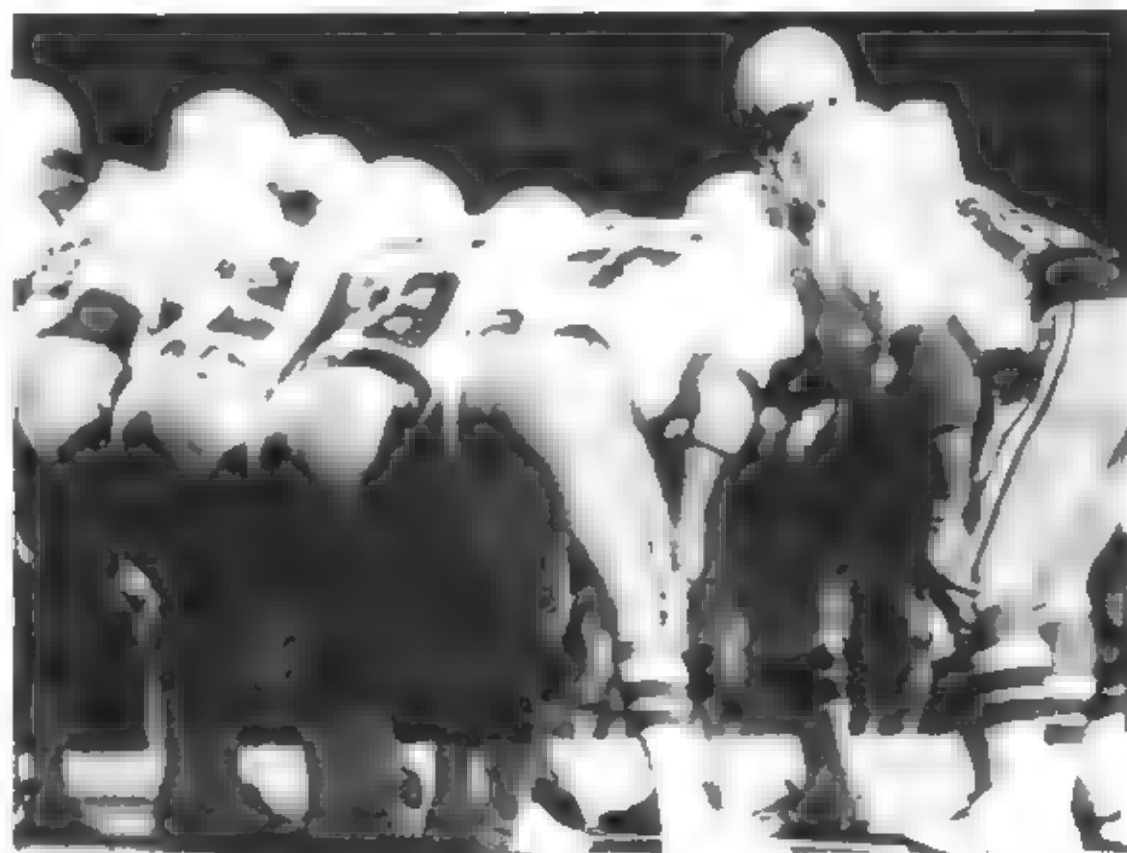

68,42,2, HUT, HUT! The Wildcat's offense played a fierce game against North Garland's defense.

Woodrow's quarterback, Bobby Hartmann, looks on approvingly

The Woodrow Wilson Wildcats commenced the preseason slowly but with promise. In the first preseason game Aaron Boulton kicked a 27-yard field goal to give the Cats a 3-0 lead against North Garland. Then Clark Hood scored the only Wildcat touchdown making the score 7-9. Woodrow played a well fought game but the resulting score was Raiders 21, Wildcats 9.

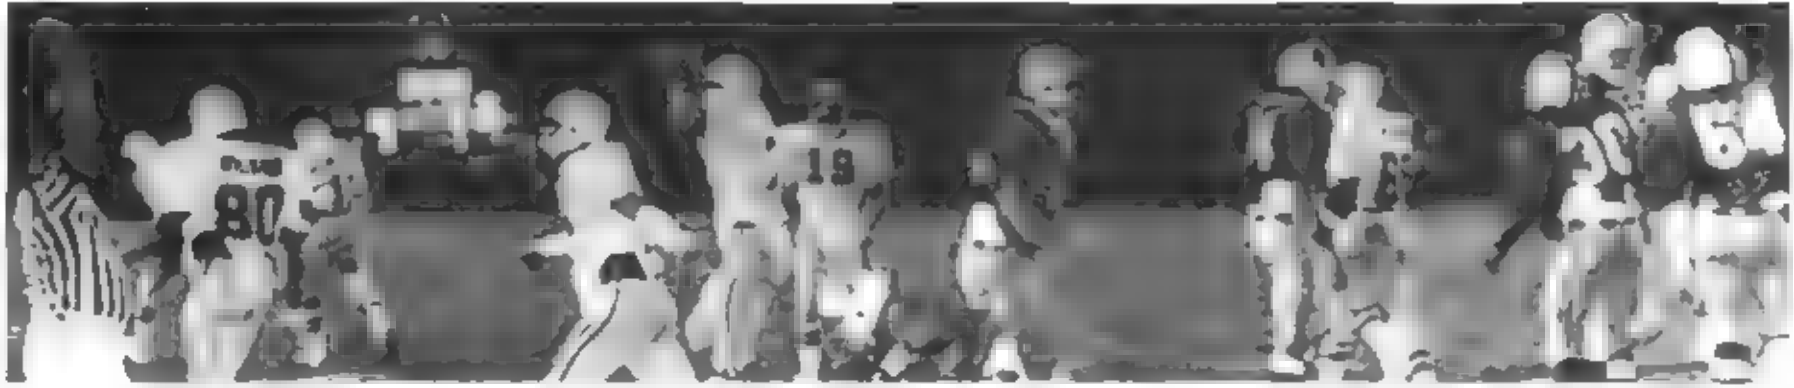

The Longview game was rattled by many tough breaks for the Wildcats. Woodrow scored two TD's but both were called back on illegal motion and clipping. The final score was Wildcats 0, Pirates 0.

Wing Right 68 Sweep on 2, was a play, given by Head Coach Talbot, which #19, Bobby Hartmann, relates to his teammates

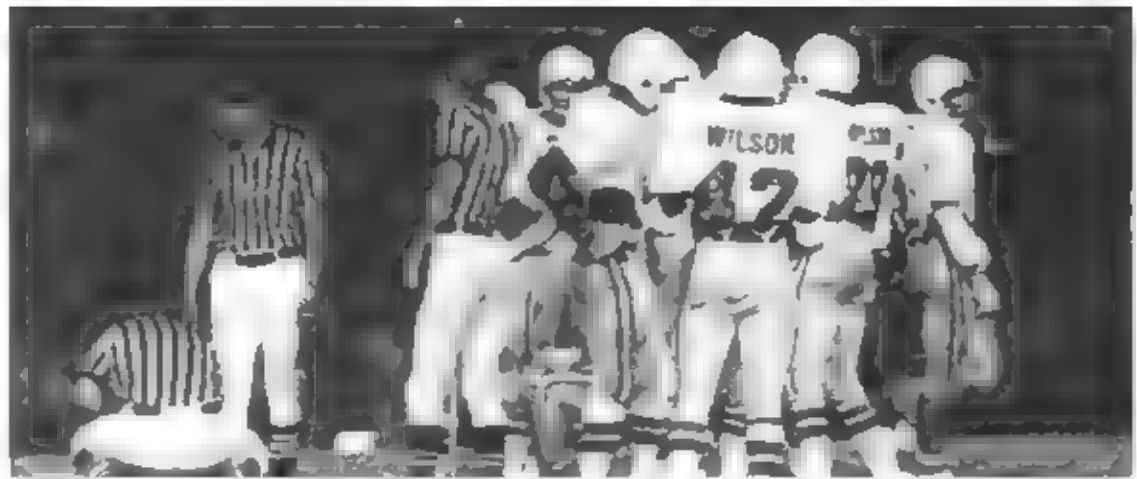

Let's Tie Pirates

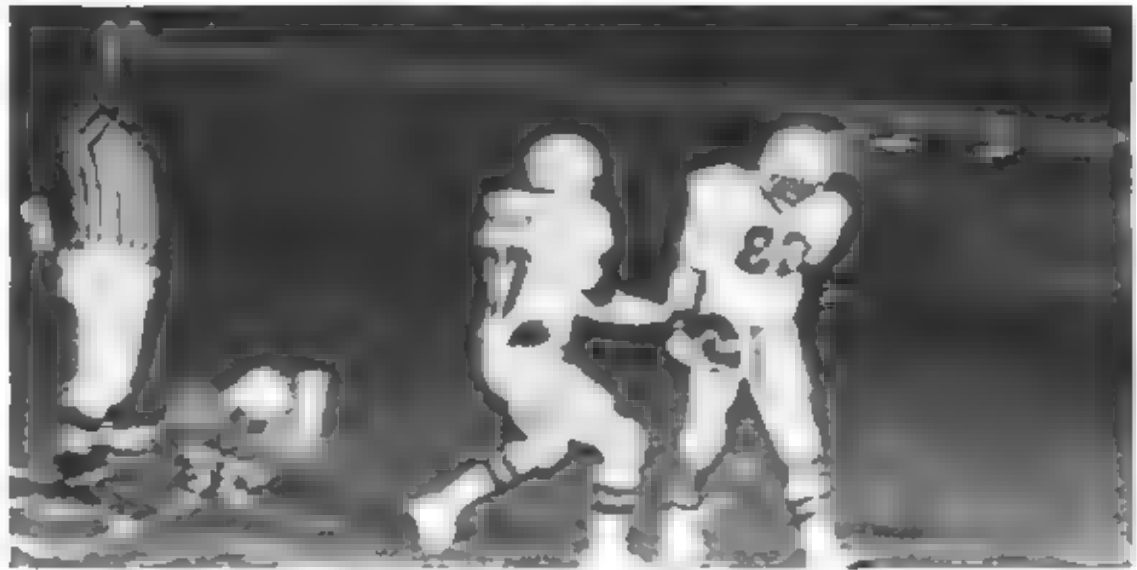

Woodrow's full back, Clark Hood, makes the touchdown, although, it was called back for illegal motion

GOOD PLAY! Willford Rider gives "Butch" complimentary pat.

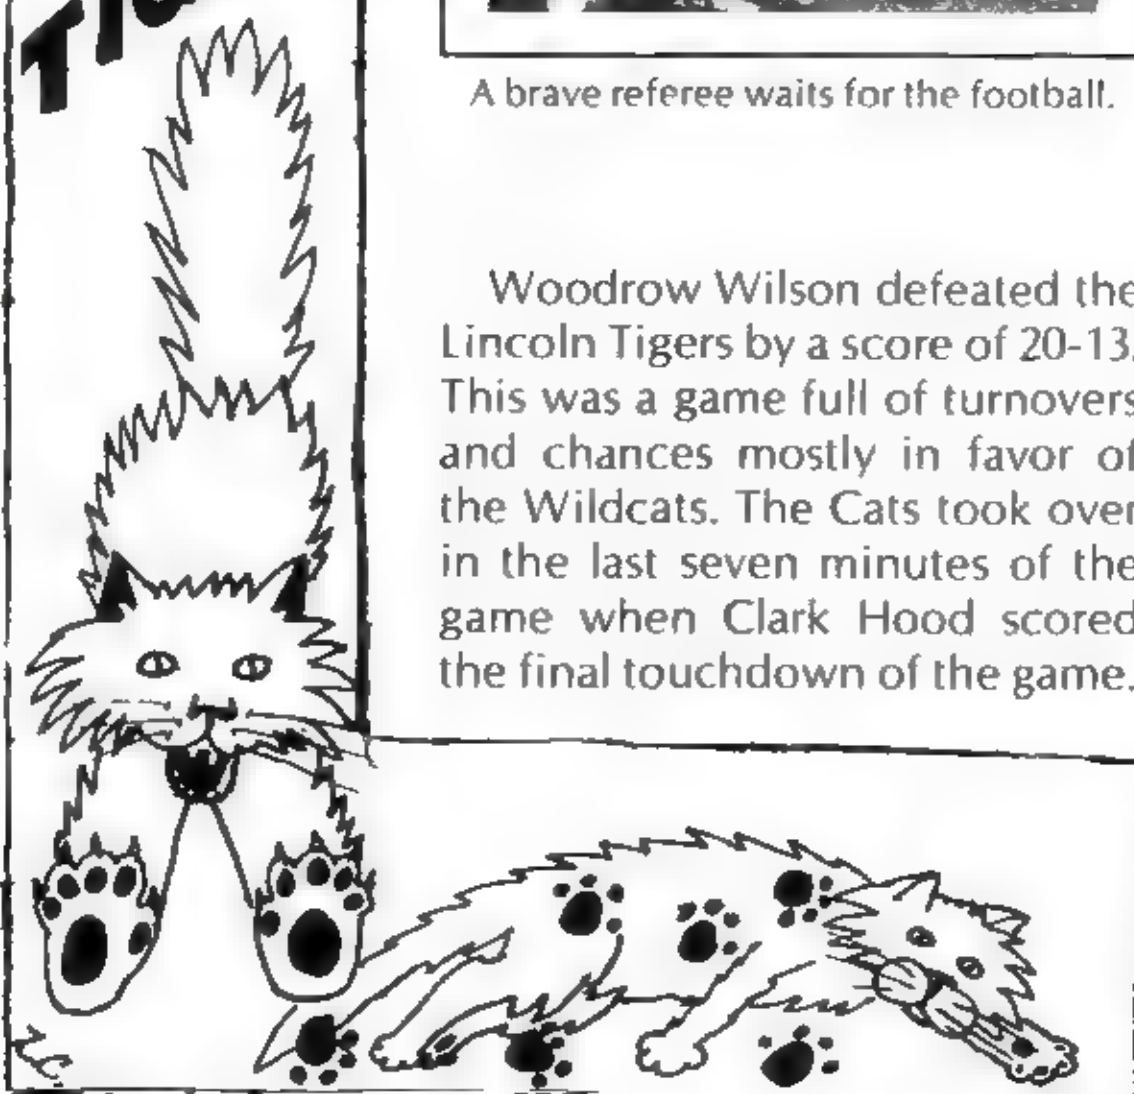

The Wildcats make another crucial first down against the Longview Pirates

Keith Harris congratulates Fred Young on his touchdown attempt, yet, the referee called clipping and the touchdown was called back!

Cats S T O M P TIGERS

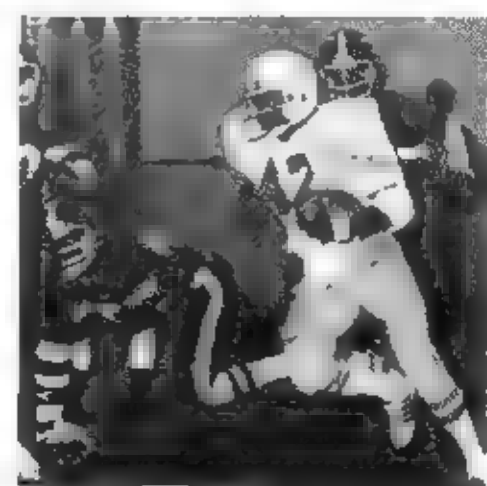

Both teams scramble to see who has gained possession of the fumbled ball

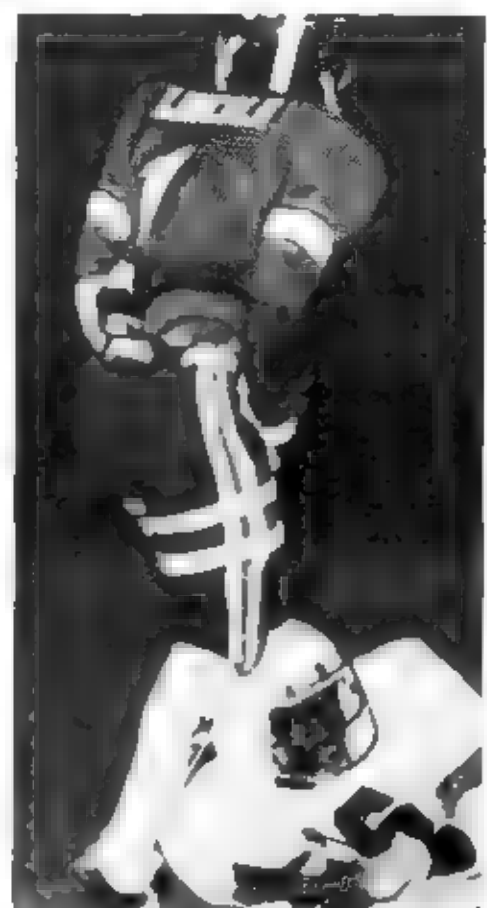

A brave referee waits for the football.

Woodrow Wilson defeated the Lincoln Tigers by a score of 20-13. This was a game full of turnovers and chances mostly in favor of the Wildcats. The Cats took over in the last seven minutes of the game when Clark Hood scored the final touchdown of the game.

Ervin Pride carries the ball a total of 79 yards against Lincoln.

THE TOTAL WILDCAT

During an observation of the Woodrow Wilson football game against Skyline and Hillcrest, the Crusader photographer decided to try to discover the feelings of the players who were not on the field by catching them off guard.

It was through this procedure that we became aware of the closeness and deep compassion among teammates. Only once in many times did we catch a Wildcat not paying close attention to the game. We believe that this is the true character of a strong and determined football team.

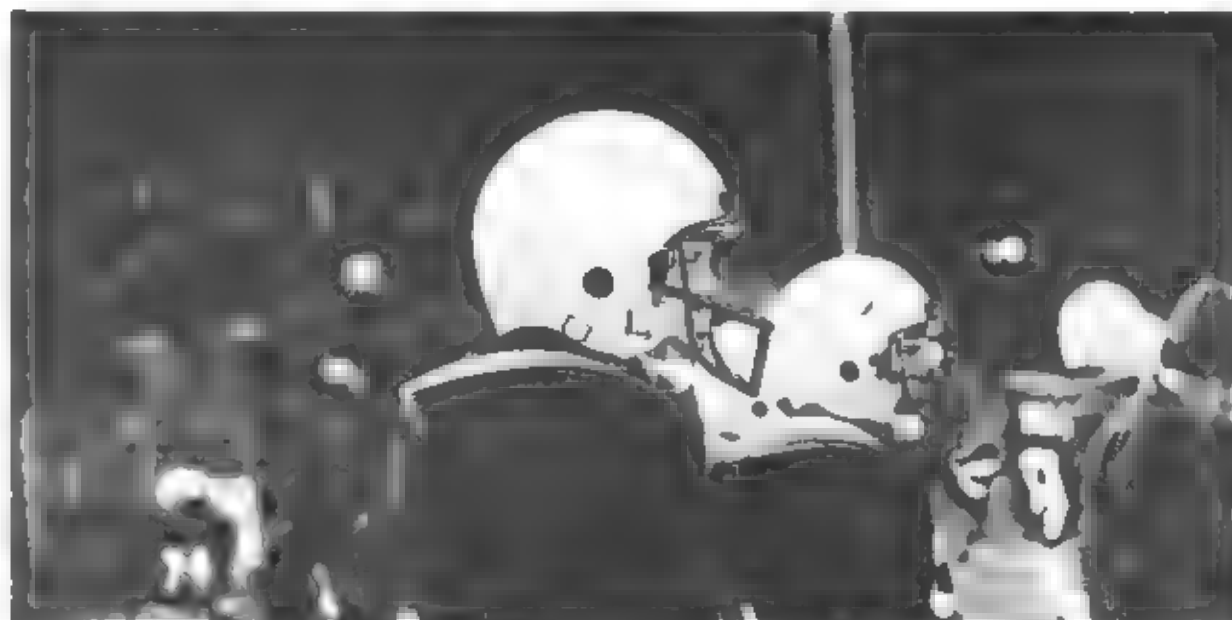

Just behind the sideline, Curtis Hankins sits in deep concern about the outcome of a game between two long-time rivals

Aaron Boulton quenches his thirst before his return to the field.

Ervin Pride stands back to observe his teammates in clear view.

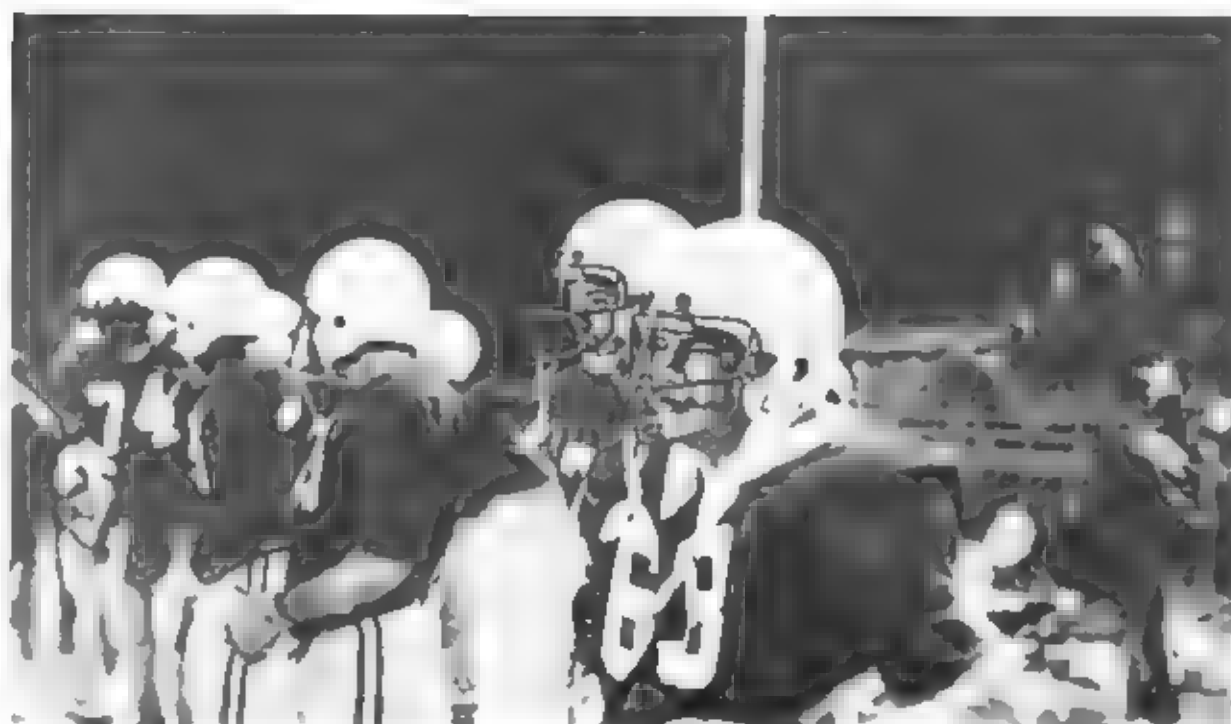

With arms folded and faces fixed with stern expressions, these Wildcats watch the battle between Skyline and Woodrow.

SIDELINE STUNTS

Above all, KEEP THOSE SOCKS UP! Curtis gets caught again

#63 shows us the most common position of a Wildcat on the sideline, while other players direct their attention toward the action.

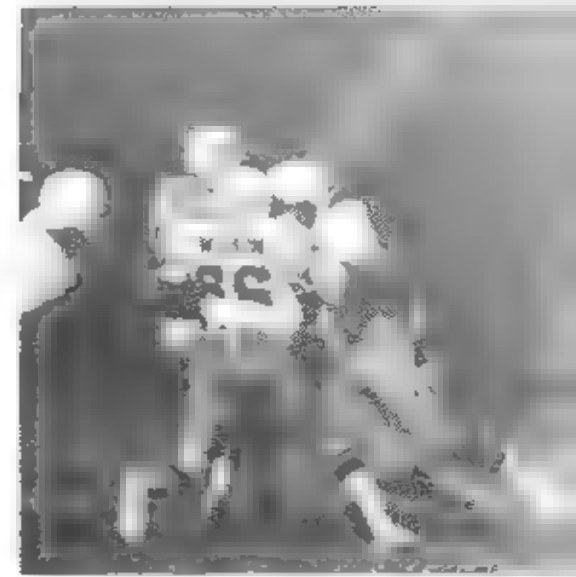

As the action begins to build, the decision of whether to sit down or stand up can be difficult.

Both of these football games went well for the Wildcats. In the Skyline vs. Woodrow game, Clark Hood scored the first touchdown followed by another one from Ervin Pride. Aaron Boulton made both of the extra points to give Woodrow a score of 14-14 against their rival.

The Hillcrest vs. Woodrow game was one in which all of the advantages belonged to the Cats. Clark Hood scored the only touchdown of the game and, after scoring the extra point, Aaron Boulton scored two field goals which determined the 13-0 victory over Hillcrest.

W.W. VS. T.J.

Woodrow's Terry Malone displays his unique defensive abilities.

Clark Hood roughs up a T.J. player with Freddie Young as a back up.

The Patriots and the Wildcats seem to be attacking anyone in sight and worrying little about who has the football.

JUNIOR VARSITY!!!

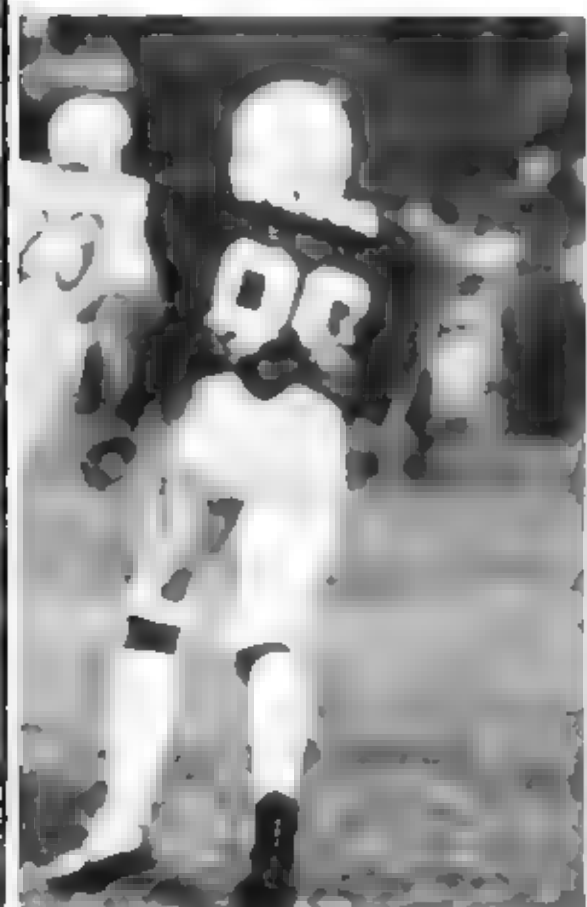

The Junior Varsity ended the season with an 0-9 record. The Jr. Varsity team played every game assiduously and should be commended! The J.V. Coaches, Leon Hamilton and Mike Kerby, gave these four players special honors: Andy James TB, Steve Jackson WB, Bobby Toliver DT and Ed Ballard DT. Coach Kerby said that he is looking forward to seeing these J.V. guys next year on Varsity.

FRESHMEN!!!

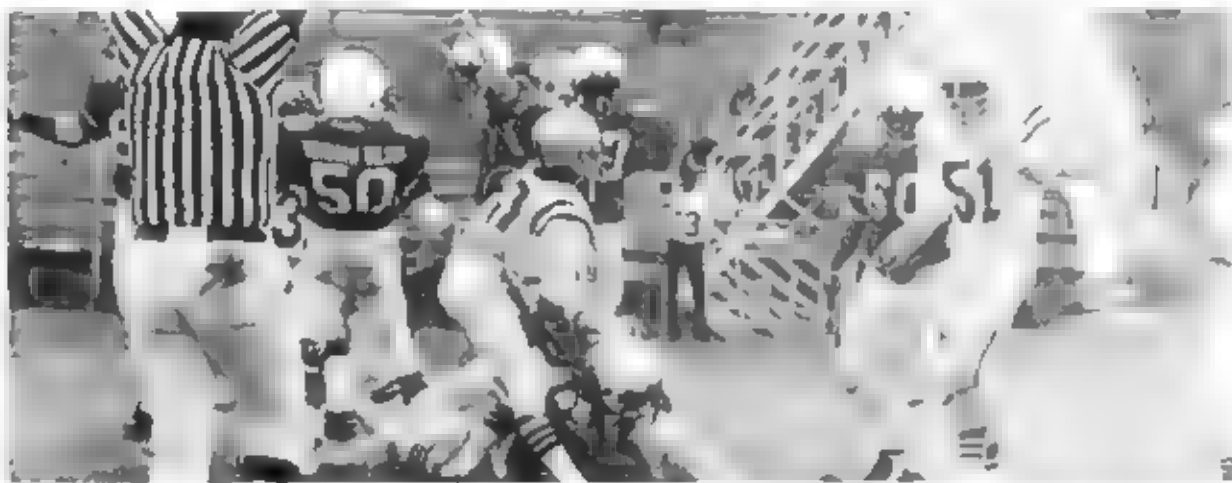

This year's Freshman Football Team completed the year with a 3-6 record. All the freshman players were outstanding but the freshman coaches feel special credits should be given to these offensive players: Johnny Milstead FB, Kevin Means WB, and Rikki Arredondo QB. Special credits are also given to these defensive players: Keith Goodman SS, and linemen; Charles Benson, Bryon Fossett, Robby Karl, Robert Davis and Dean Crosby. The freshman coaches, Tovar and Miller, were pleased with the energetic performance of the 1979-80 Freshman team. Woodrow's sentiments can be summed up by Coach Miller's statement, "This freshman team has begun to re-establish that winning tradition which is a part of Woodrow's history!"

The 1979-80 FRESHMAN FOOTBALL TEAM is as follows, from left to right Top Row: Coach Miller, Mgr John Bean, Mgr Robert Trevino and Coach Tovar Second Row #50 Edward Beaver, #87 Todd Riggan, #72 Victor DeLa Rosa, #74 Robert Davis, #71 Dean Crosby, #85 Reginald Hall, #75 Byron Fossett, #79 Daniel LaTour and #84 David DelBosque Third Row #45 John Milstead, #16 Edd e Miller, #67 Edward Young, #70 Charles Benson, #66 Greg Phillips, #82 Harold Sanders, #26 Freddie Bean and #40 Freddie Earl Fourth Row #55 Carlos Trujillo, #57 Joe Olvera, #62 Robby Karl, #27 Keith Goodman, #12 Rikki Arredondo, #64 Joe Ramos, and #68 Frankie Barnett Fifth Row: #25 Kevin Means, #11 Joe Herrera, #20 Leroy Hughes, #19 Jerry Box, #73 Bert Haynes, #86 Nathan Warren, #35 Rodney Malone, #24 Jimmy Sande,as, and #46 Gary Florence Bottom Row #31 Grerardo Martinez, #10 Otis Crowder, #88 Leno Emerson, and #42 Tony Lopez. #33 Anthony Spencer is not pictured.

The 1979-80 Freshman Basketball record was 10 for 10 — placing them fourth in district. This season, Reggie Hall had a total of 272 points; Harold Sanders had a total of 200 points. Coach Hoggard said, "The Freshman Team was erratic; yet, they showed good potential." The erratic nature of the Freshman Team gave Woodrow fans many exciting games, such as the Team's overtime wins against Hillcrest and Spruce. The best performance of the year was when Harold Sanders scored 31 points against Lincoln.

Robert Davis goes up for the rebound.

#22, Harold Sanders, keeps the ball away from Lincoln as teammate #12, Kerry Wilkinson, slaps one of the Tigers.

The 79-80 Woodrow Wilson Volleyball teams had the most successful year ever seen at Woodrow. They had very few upsets throughout the season. Their teamwork and ability to keep trying hard proved to be their greatest asset. The Varsity team captain was Leticia Brown, and Gwen Brown was captain for the Junior Varsity. Susan McCracken and Brenda Smith served the most points for the season. The manager for both teams was Monica Smith. The season ended for the Varsity 6-6, Junior Varsity 5-6. Woodrow Wilson has reason to be proud.

The Woodrow Wilson Tennis team has a full schedule of games to play; yet they played in the Dallas High School Fall Tournament earlier this year and did very well. Kern Smith barely lost the Singles Consolation against Hillcrest. He won the first set 6-2 and played a close third set 6-7. Becky Fugate played against a girl from W. T. White for the Singles Third Place. She won the first set 7-6 but was defeated in the last two sets. In the Boys' Consolation, Bruce Wilcox and Paul Hartmann played unsuccessfully against Hillcrest. Dotti Garland and Joanne Early won Second Place in the Doubles Competition.

The 1979-80 National Honor Society initiated a scholarship program in which they raised money to later award to one of its members. By offering their services to the Woodrow teachers and working at outside assignments, they were able to raise the money. One of the members who participated in this work will be awarded this scholarship to use toward future college plans. At the induction ceremony on March 6, 1980 the new members will be officially inducted and receive the emblem of the National Honor Society.

VARIATIONS

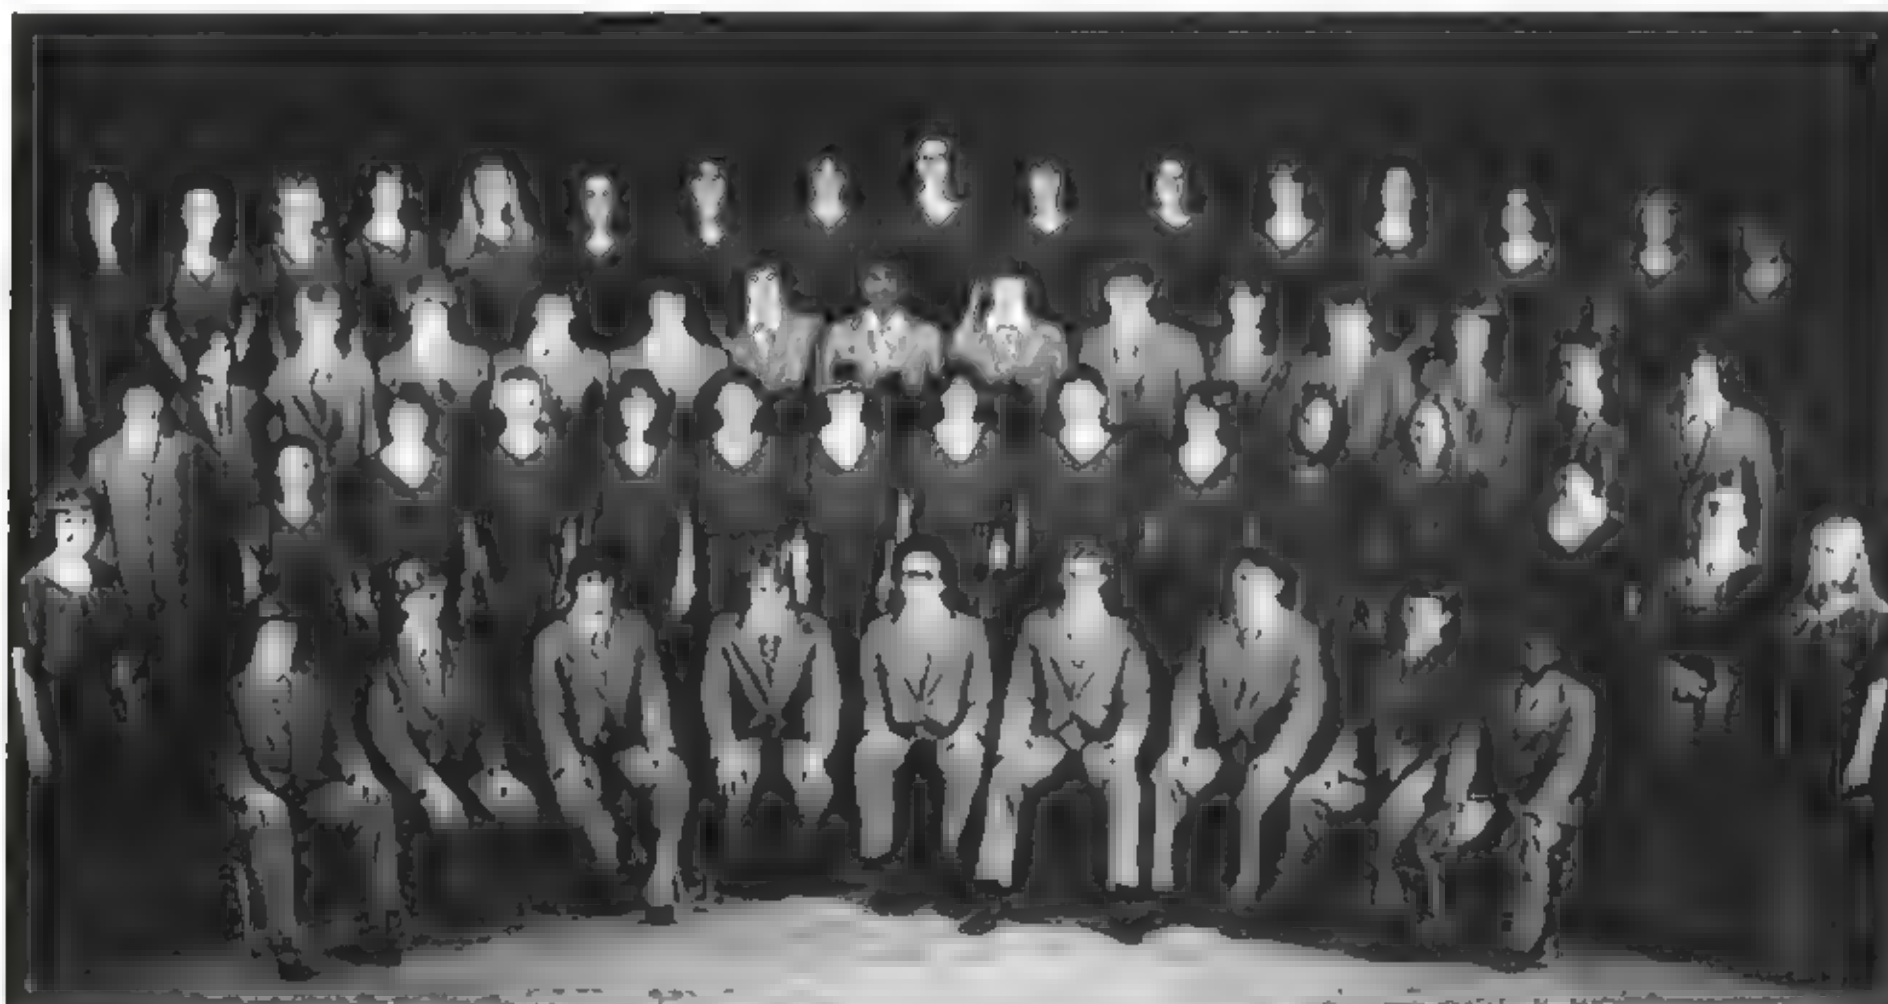

The Variations are a select group of talented choir members. Throughout the year they performed at various places such as SMU, medical centers, several banks and churches. They also performed in all the regular choir activities. The "Variations" received first division ratings at both U.I.L. and DISD contests, and qualified for State Contest again this year.

The Woodrow Wilson ROTC, trained by Sgt. Maj. Don E. Bacon and Msgt. Alphine Freeman, has once again held the ranking of an honor unit, comprised of a fine cadet corps and excellent other groups, such as Rifle and Drill teams. The combined efforts of these two teams led Woodrow to an overall victory over all other DISD schools entered in the North Zone Competition. The Rifle team has fired in four matches, and while waiting for the final score of the last match, won every one of them. This year's cadet battalion commander is Christopher Roberts.
